

Our Winter TOP 20 WINES

Food-friendly wines that taste like they're twice the price—from trusted family wineries.

1

Pillar & Post Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon

From a well-known Napa winery. Bright red fruits on the palate, balanced tannins, and refreshing acidity make this an excellent food wine.

2

Golden Gate Cellars Alexander Valley Cabernet Sauvignon

Hubert de Boüard, co-owner/winemaker of the Chateau Angelus (one of St. Emilion's best), selected and supervised this Bordeaux's blending. Mostly Merlot, soft and round with a complex, long finish. At this price, one of Bordeaux's best values!

3

Golden Gate Cellars Pinot Noir

Golden Gate Cellars, your California connection. This Pinot's bursting with juicy red cherry, cranberry, and strawberry flavors, accompanied by some beautiful spice notes.

4

2017 Villamont Savigny-Les- Beaune Le Village Pinot Noir

Made with grapes hand-picked at the Henri de Villamont estate. Winemaker Pierre Jhean believes to create Burgundy's renowned balance and finesse requires respecting each grape and adapting styles to each terroir.

5

Les Terrasses de Saint Christophe Red Bordeaux

This limited one-time purchase is a gem from the St. Emilion region in Bordeaux. Les Terrasses is the second label of the famous Chateau Tour Saint Christophe and drinks like it should cost twice its price.

6

Bucks' Crossing Sonoma County Chardonnay

From an iconic Napa Valley Winery. Aromas of Meyer lemon, Fuji apple, and ripe pear. On the palate, bright citrus mixed with the fruit flavors, and a touch of oak.

7

2017 Mas de Sainte Croix Passion d'une Terre Cotes du Rhone

This is a hearty winter red that will warm you up! The dominance of grenache makes this powerful wine burst with juicy, ripe dark fruit flavors. Serve with almost any comfort food.

8

Hitch Edna Valley Pinot Noir

From a well-known California winery. A bouquet of tarragon, orange peel, and clove with a bright mix of Bing cherry, blueberry, and a hint of mocha. Balanced with integrated tannins.

9

2019 Thomas Bassot Saint-Véran Chardonnay

Quality and tradition define Maison Thomas Bassot wine-making style. This house makes a refined and balanced style of Burgundy that we love, in a way that respects each appellation's character.

10

2016 Alvides Roble Tempranillo

100% Tempranillo from Spain's fastest growing wine region, Ribera del Duero. Notes of raspberry, currant, plum, violets, and subtle spice notes. It's fresh, soft, and easy drinking.

11

2019 Poggio Salvi Lavischio Toscana

This hidden Tuscan gem of 100% Merlot comes to us from a high quality producer in Tuscany. It's a perfect medium-bodied winter warmer; fresh, floral red with black currant and hints of thyme that follow with a pretty finish.

12

2015 Château des Aladères Corbieres Vielles Vignes

This French red blend comes from a partnership with re-known Bordeaux winemaker Stéphane Derenoncourt, who has advised many famous, highly scored Chateaux such as Smith Haut Lafite, Pavie-Macquin, and Domaine de Chevalier.

13

Alumni Willamette Valley Chardonnay

A versatile Chardonnay with a bouquet of Crenshaw melon, white fruit, slight oak, almonds, and roasted hazelnut. Food-loving, refreshing acidity, pretty floral structure with incredible balance.

14

Homestead Collection H3 Red Blend

From the iconic Horse Heaven Hills. Aromas of black cherry and blueberry jam with hints of ripe plums, strawberry and fresh roasted coffee lead to a balanced silky and delicious mid-palate.

15

Arado Reserva Uco Malbec

Classic Mendoza richness but with the elegance of Uco Valley's signature higher altitude freshness. Deep blackberry, plum, licorice, and dark chocolate flavors. Made by one of Argentina's most celebrated rising-star winemakers.

16

2019 Château Haut-Philippon White Bordeaux

Bordeaux's Entre-Deux-Mers appellation is one of the world's best for producing delicious refreshing, affordable white wines. Haut-Philippon is a perfect representation of that style and an excellent partner for foods like seafood and chicken.

17

Golden Gate Cellars Cabernet Sauvignon

This easy-drinking, well-balanced wine has fresh, bright red fruit flavors and comes to us from some of CA's most renowned vineyards. It really should cost more!

18

White Cloud Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc

Refreshing, versatile, expressive wine with citrus, stone fruit, and tropical fruit notes. Its mouthwatering acidity is especially food-friendly.

19

Jules Larose Rosé

From France's Languedoc region, this fun, fresh wine's balanced acidity makes it extremely versatile and food-friendly. We love the quality on this one—tastes like it should sell for twice its price!

20

Il Casato Pinot Grigio Valdadige

From one of the top producers in Italy! Perfect with appetizers, chicken and shellfish. We tasted this gem when we met with the supplier and were blown away with the quality.
